Staff mobility within the TPG-LRC CoRE project

- TPG B participants will have the opportunity to offer or receive peer support on the topic of recognition and implementation of the LRC through staff mobility, starting from the 6 specific thematic indications for TPG B.
- Mobile staff members will be able to deepen their topics of interest through structured peer learning activity, to match their offers and needs.

Functioning

- Maximum 20 participants for 5 days each.
- Every member of TPG B can apply to send 1 member only. Additional members on a self-paying basis.
- At the end of the period abroad, each mobile staff member will be asked to write a report.

Application

To express interest in the staff mobility, send an e-mail answering to 3 questions:

- Is your organization willing to offer or to receive peer support?
- What is the specific thematic indication you are interested in and why?
- Do you have a prior agreement with an institution to organise the staff mobility?

A committee composed of the three co-chairs of the TPG B will review the applications and match the staff members (for thematic interest and geographical spread).
