Objective

"The Council Recommendations on promoting automatic mutual recognition of higher education and upper secondary education and training qualifications and the outcomes of learning periods abroad states: "[...] a Higher education qualification acquired in one Member State is automatically recognised at the same level, for the purpose of accessing further studies, in the others [...]".

In line with the Council Recommendation, the AdReN project aims at fostering the automatic recognition of academic qualifications and qualifications giving access to higher education in the Adriatic region, starting from project country partners.
