Bologna Thematic Peer Group B on Key Commitment 2: National legislation and procedures compliant with the Lisbon Recognition Convention

Micro-credentials within the TPG-LRC CoRE project

24th January 2023

bologna process

EUROPEAN
Higher Education Area

Co-funded by
the European Union

Why Micro-credentials

Rome Communique

Recommendation on a European approach to micro-credentials for lifelong learning and employability

Specific thematic indications for the TPG B on LRC

Common Framework for Micro-credentials in the EHEA

Objective and target

Provide HEIs with a hands-on tool to develop, issue, quality assure and assess micro-credentials

- Addressing both input and output phases
- Increasing clarity and transparency about what fits the definition of micro-credential considering - different varieties of micro-credentials

Micro-credentials
from different perspectives

Including input from:

- 3 Thematic Peer Groups: Qualification framework and ECTS; Recognition; Quality assurance
  - TPG-LRC CoRE subgroup: CIMEA, EUA, Nuffic, External experts

- Working group on Learning and Teaching

Structure and main contents

1. Introduction

2. Key reference documents and tools available

   • Repository of "what is already there": documents; EU projects; Networks

3. Key elements from the 3 TPGs and from the WG on Learning and Teaching

   • Key relevant elements of the work on micro-credentials by the 4 groups
   • Practical examples (survey among HEIs – within June 2023)

4. Conclusions

To be published by October 2023

Co-funded by
the European Union

bologna
process
EUROPEAN
Higher Education Area

Thank you!